SPECIAL EASTER CELEBRATION AT ROSEWOOD SAND HILL MENLO PARK HOTEL FEATURES EASTER BRUNCH AT MADERA, AND PETTING ZOO TO BENEFIT PALO ALTO HUMANE SOCIETY ON SUNDAY, APRIL 4

WHAT: Rosewood Sand Hill will host its first-ever Easter Sunday celebration featuring a gourmet brunch at Madera restaurant and a petting zoo on the hotel's Vista Lawn, both with magnificent views of the Santa Cruz Mountains. This action-packed, fun-filled celebration will supply memorable moments for the entire family.

Children will delight in visiting with the Easter Bunny, as well as seeing the ducks, chickens, dwarf goats, pot-bellied pigs, turkey, sheep, and rabbits frolicking on the Vista Lawn. The celebration is open to local community members, hotel guests and Madera patrons, and Rosewood Sand Hill will donate all proceeds from the petting zoo admission to The Palo Alto Humane Society.

Madera will serve a delightful four-course brunch with three choices for each course for $62 per person. A children's version of the brunch menu is available for half price, and Madera's full children's menu will be available as well. Chef Peter Rudolph and his culinary team will create a giant Easter egg display, and each child will receive rabbit ears and a miniature Easter basket upon arrival. A saxophonist and classical guitarist duo will provide musical entertainment during brunch.

WHEN: Sunday, April 4, 11a.m. to 3 p.m.

WHERE: 2825 Sand Hill Road in Menlo Park (near Interstate 280)

COST: Suggested donation of $10 per person for petting zoo; $62 per person for Madera brunch (or $31 per child)
